I am reminded of a story where a man fell into a hole. A priest walks by and the guy yelled up, "Father! I have fallen down this hole, can you help me out?" The priest says a prayer and keeps on walking. A doctor then walks by, again the guy yelled up, "Doc! I have fallen down this hole, can you help me out?" The doctor writes a prescription and throws it down the hole and continues walking. Feeling discouraged, the man sees his friend John and yells up, "John, I've fallen down this hole, can you help me get out?". John then jumps in the hole. The man screams, "What the hell are you doing?!? Now we both are stuck down here!" John replies, "I know, but I've been down here before and can show you the way out".

Friendship is not just simply showing up and hanging out, it's lifting each other up when we have fallen. Be true examples of friends to all that you meet. You never know when you will need a new friend to help you along the path of life, and like snowflakes everyone is unique and can bring a unique perspective or lesson to your life. I challenge each one of you look in your life and see who you could be a better friend to. If we all strive to be better friends to each other, perhaps we can create unity in our community and in general.

Let us not just pray for peace and love, let us be the engines by which we achieve peace and love. Let us all come together in unity and strength for each other. In the end we are stronger together than we are apart.

Together we can all make a difference.

The Jade Emperor of peace, hope, and serenity.

September has arrived! Do you all know what that means? Pumpkin Spice Lattes are just around the corner. If you don't know be by now one of the reasons I actually enjoy fall is because of the drinks. I always have to be careful because I don't want to waste all my money on lattes and I need to keep my petite figure. Jokes aside I am excited for it to cool off just a tad and to have my morning commute be cooler so I can roll down the windows and enjoy the cool breeze in the mornings.

Fall semester has begun across our great state. I am very busy at work and am excited for the tuition deadline to get here so I can breathe and have the pace slow down a little bit more. And always remember to follow the speed limit in a school zone. As a wise woman once said the children are our future. ☺

August turned out to be a very fabulous month we had a lot of great entertainment, events and support throughout.

We started the month out with our Miss Gay Utah Youth, Morgana's show "Cell Block Tango". Morgana and her group of girls worked really hard on their jail cells, choreography and to have a great line up. Some of these girls were performing for their first time in drag and they literally slayed the night. They brought in a good crowd and we had some RCGSE members there to support as well. I would really like to see more RCGSE members out to these types of functions. We all forget that we were young and impressionable once in our lives. We are here to help, support and mentor our young members so they are able to continue to grow in their lives and within the organization. They are our future leaders of the RCGSE and we all need to remember and try to support them as much as any other. I hope to see this.

Our Crown Prince and Princess through a great first event for the Felicia Young Adult Fund. They brought in some new and fun ideas and we were able to raise some money. The crowd was on fire and there were some really great raffle prizes. I am very proud of the work that the not only did for the show but for the constant support, love and work they show for the reign and for our community. The Princess Party was definitely a success.

Many of you know that the UGRA has started back up again. I was not around when the UGRA was present in past years, but I am glad to see this organization start back up and I am excited to see the good work that they will do. I know it's a couple years down the road but I definitely can't wait to see their rodeo come back in to town. I do love me them country men.

We were able to help support the UGRA in August and the raised money for the organization but to also gather school supplies to help local school and with the children that might be in need of some help. They threw a fabulous function at Club 90. It was a great venue, and I don't think they knew how the gays drank because they were running low on that good Fireball! Congratulations to the UGRA and I am excited to see more events that we can come out and support.

My dear sister and Closet Ball Queen Kymmy Shaylee through her 2nd event during her reign and has earned her crown! I love musicals and Broadway! So it was such a fun night. We had a lot of great performers but there was one I was blown away by. Last year Krystyna and I got to perform at Westminster for their LGBTQ group's pageant. There we met a beautiful young soul named Tanner. We knew Tanner was in school for the arts and Krystyna was able to invite her to come out and sing live. Girl has some pipes and sang beautifully! So Tanner, if you get to read this congrats on your performance as well! You killed it!

Lastly I was to briefly touch on PWA kickoff. I know The Prince and Princess had probably talked about this in their letters so I don't want to sound like a broken record. I just wanted to congratulate the both of them on a great start to PWA! Casino Royale was a definite success. We got a lot of people out and because of your hard work and efforts for kick-off we know that there will already be people benefiting from this fund at Christmas. I love you both and am very proud of the work you are doing.

Just so you all know Cancer Week is approaching quickly. I am getting some things solidified and I hope to get the information about the week out to you all soon! I am really excited for this week and hope to do some new things that are fun and entertaining. I know we have all been touched by cancer in some way, so I hope to see as many of you out as possible as we raise money for this great event.

As always, be safe! Watch on Facebook and our website for our upcoming event. I love you all and let's see what September brings us!

WOW September came toooooo quick! Hope everyone had an Awesome August. I know I did!

I got to represent in Portland for the Oregon State Leather Contest. I gave one of my invested titles to the House of Rebel while I was there. I had such a blast. Can't wait for Portland's coronation in October!

We had some Birthdays in August!!! Crown Princess 41 Sandi Panties and Crown Prince 41 Adam Shaylee threw an awesome birthday show for the one and only Sandi Panties!! They raised $1,000.00!! CONGRATS you two!! Way to Getr' Done!!! Also our Closet Ball Queen Kymmy Shaylee threw an awesome event. Sorry I couldn't make it. I came down with something that night. But I heard it was a blast and I am sad I missed it!!

My Princess Vega Starr and I had our PWA kickoff! First off I want to thank EVERYONE who had a hand in making it happen!! If I name everyone this newsletter would go on forever! It was so amazing seeing everyone. I want to address the glass breaking during our number. It was in fact on purpose. I made theatre sugar glass as the table top. It was meant to be broken. There is a verse in the song, "A million shards of glass That haunt me from the past.....when all hope begins to shatter you know that I won't be afraid." -Sam Smith, Writings on the Wall.

As many of you saw Mr. Dave and Sandi Panties had red ribbons at the event. Mr. Dave made those and will have them at all of the PWA events up until snowball. The Pasta Bar FHE was fun too. Needless to say I am SICK of pasta now. LOL.

Vega and I poured our hearts and souls into PWA Kickoff weekend and I hope it showed. We have very big shoes to fill from the PR's before us. Every day it becomes more real. This experience has been so humbling. I look at the number we raised and I see a number of checks that we get to deliver. I really enjoy talking to past PR's and hearing about their experiences during their year.

On a side note - I have teamed up with an organization called Athlete Ally. They are a non-profit organization that helps foster inclusive sports communities. I am now officially one of their Pro Ambassadors for LGBT Sports. Visit their website at athleteally.org

This newsletter has to be one of the most difficult I've had to write so far. It's the most difficult because I can't find the words to express how grateful I am for how much our membership has stepped up to help serve the community. We have had quite a few events in such a short time, and each of those events our organization has come together like the family we are and shown the community that we are still here, and that we still care.

I am absolutely blown away by the level of support that Kayden and I received in preparation for our PWA weekend. We had so many people reach out offering to help with preparations, donations for auction items, etc... Because of the amazing level of support that we got from all of you, our PWA Kick-Off weekend was a huge success.

There are SO many people to thank, that it would take me a while - but I have to make sure I thank a few specific people.

First of all, thank you to my daughter Aria. PWA kick-off is a huge event and for you to be willing to not go in face, so that you could help Kayden and I run and do what we needed is very much appreciated - you will never know how grateful I am for your help preparing for and the night of our Casino Night... You are an amazing person and I'm so blessed to call you my family.

Rhett - Thank you SO much for stepping up and doing the door and accepting the donations for us. I know that asking for someone to handle the door on such a huge event like this is a challenging task - but you TOTALLY rose to the challenge and we couldn't have done it without you!

Austyn, BJ, Adam, Nate, and Josh. - Thank you so much for dealing the cards for us and providing such a great atmosphere for everyone. It was awesome to see you all engaged and having fun with those playing and making the night as successful as it was. Also, thank you to Nate for bringing the square so people could donate using their cards too!

To all of the previous PR's that came out: THANK YOU!!! Kayden and I have a goal this year to keep as many previous PR's involved as possible and we were all so incredibly grateful that so many previous PR's came out to support - including our Decade Prince, Nickolas and our Double Decade Princess - Chaise Manhattan. Thank you for making the drive from out of state!!! Also - a huge thank you to all the previous PR's who donated auction items!

To Mr. Dave - a HUGE thank you for coming up with such a GREAT idea on how to raise additional funds for the PWA Christmas fund. Your ribbon idea is AWESOME and we are so lucky to have you around to help us! And thank you to you and Tiana LaShae for helping set up the day of our event!!

To our Board President - Krystyna. Thank you for keeping things on track and helping us get everything organized from an administrative point. We are so grateful to have you behind us!

Finally, to our fellow Top 6 members - Erik, Kery, Adam, and Sandi. You four have been SO great in being in our corner for this weekend to happen. Erik - thank you for helping set up and running the auction with Kayden. Sandi, thank you for helping organize things, helping me with my crown, for performing, and of course - for being your amazing upbeat, encouraging self! Adam, again - thank you for dealing, helping set up, and organizing things when we needed you. And finally, to my Empress, Kery.... GIRL!!!! Thank you for always being in my corner, for always supporting and encouraging me, and for keeping me calm when I'm being stupid lol. You are an amazing friend, and I'm so lucky to have you as my Empress. <3 GET 'ER DONE 41!!!!

Next, we'll be gearing up for snowball in December and doing some traveling! So excited for the upcoming events we have and can't wait to raise some more money for our community!

Hello everyone! Fall is fast approaching, I'm very sad to see summer slowly dwindling away. I love sunshine, BBQ's with friends and family, warm summer nights and being outdoors enjoying the sweet summer air. This summer has been so wonderful this year and I can't believe how quickly the first 3 months of our reign has flown by.

First of all, thank you, thank you, thank you to everyone who came out to support the Princess Party on Aug 6th. I couldn't have done it without so many people. Adam, Angela, Lil and Freddy all played a HUGE role in helping to decorate for the evening. Vega for being as always, a fabulous emcee. Angela, Adam & Tim for raffles and last but not least, my sweet Freddy. For everything he did leading up to the event and making sure I was okay and had everything I needed, this is why he's my Prince Charming.

The next couple months are going to be filled with wonderful events and fun things to do. September will be a good time with the Salute to Cowboys show hosted by Johnny Disco, the Back to Basics show hosted by Markey Mark & Kery and Closet Ball put on by our incredible Pageant Committee.

Can I just tell you how much I love seeing all of you. Thank you for coming out and supporting, for your kind words and encouraging comments. I enjoy learning from each of you and, as a team, we can bring our community even closer together.

All my love,

The Sunshine Panty Princess
