“Anyone can achieve their fullest potential, who we are might be predetermined, but the path we follow is always of our own choosing. We should never allow our fears or the expectations of others to set the frontiers of our destiny. Your destiny can't be changed but, it can be challenged. Every man is born as many men and dies as a single one” – Martin Heidegger

I like this quote because it helps illuminate something real and true about each person. We cannot change who we are born as, but that does not define the essence of who we are. Who we are is the culmination of our experiences and our choices. Who we choose to love, whom we choose to show mercy and compassion to. The way we meet each challenge and how we take discourse and disagreement, trials and tests in stride. This is what defines us. Our path is never set in stone and each day we should strive to be the person we want to be, not be the person everyone thinks we are.

This quote gives us hope of redemption for our past transgressions against others, and hope that a new day will bring new beginnings if we believe in ourselves and work towards who we want to be. It is a wise man who recognizes the pain they have brought unto others and tries to change themselves as penitence. Do not blame others for your actions, take responsibility and recognize that this is an opportunity for growth.

The world would be a much nicer place to live if we all recognize the potential in ourselves and the potential in others. Let us depart each meeting or encounter with a sense of fulfilment that we made the life of someone else better simply by being the person we want to be.

Together we can all make a difference.

The Jade Emperor of peace, hope, and serenity.

The Zen of the Spike.

October Newsletter

Hello all and welcome to October! I can't believe September has come and gone. It has flown and I know in the blink of an eye October will be in the past as well. Many wonderful things happened in September. I think I say it in every newsletter but we raise a lot of money and we did a lot of good.

First off I would like to congratulate Prince Royale 36 Johnny Disco, Empress 22 Ivey and Empress 20/32 Sheneka for putting together another great Salute to Cowboys. We were able to raise a great deal of money for the PWA fund and I couldn't be more proud of a great team. PLUS it didn't hurt that there were men in undies, getting whip cream all of them bods.

Thank you to Lord 41 Markey Mark for putting on the Back to the Beginning show with me. It was so much fun to see the performers first song they ever performed. It was a fun night and definitely a memory that I will remember.

The last part of September events we had Closet Ball. Our pageant chair Tiana La'Shae and committee did such an amazing job on everything. From poster to set. It was by far the best I have seen the Murray Eagles look for one of our shows and/or events. So kudos and spirit fingers to you all.

Now, lets talk about Cancer Awareness Week. I am SO excited to have the opportunity to plan this week and help raise money for such a great cause. I hope that everyone enjoys the week. I have tried to incorporate things that I have not seen and maybe bring some things back that have stopped being done. Cancer week will be Oct 1st through Oct. 9th. We start of the week with the Saturdays Warrior show. Oct 2nd will be Soup Sunday at the SunTrapp. Monday we will "Strike Out Cancer" as we bowl at Bonwood. Tuesday is our Monthly court meeting. Wednesday will be out Dart Tournament. Friday Oct. 7th we will be having Drag Bingo at the Murray Eagles. That Saturday will be the Monarch Show called Monarchs for Mammies, and to wrap up the week on Sunday we will "Karaoke for the Kure" at the SunTrapp. I think this week will have a lot of fun and entertainment and I hope that we can raise money to help so many people that have had or know someone that has had cancer.

Also in conjunction with Cancer week, we will be walking in the "Making Strides for Breast Cancer" walk. I have formed a team and our goal is to raise $500. My Crown Princess, Sandi Panties and I will be heading up this walk. We encourage those that can to donate; those that can't to share the team link (http://makingstrides.acevents.org/site/TR?fr\_id=77407&pg=team&team\_id=2081334) and definitely come out and walk with us.

We have a lot coming up in October and the months to follow. Please make sure that you watching for updates on our website www.rcgse.org. I love you all and hope that you have an amazing October, and I can't wait to see you all out at the events.

With love,

Hello everyone! So October is here! Wow, September went by way too quick! Congrats to Kymmy on a fantastic year and an amazing step down! Girl, you turned it out!

This month is going to fly by too. We have Cancer week and my Birthday show and some of us are headed to Portland for their coronation.

So the Cancer week kick off show was very emotional for me. My Grandma is a breast cancer survivor and my Grandfather is currently battling Lymphoma. Very rarely will you see me cry, but those two have been my role models since I was born. Love you Grandma Rafi and Grandpa Ralph!

My Birthday is October 18th however we will be celebrating it on October 15th at the Sun Trapp. Doors at 8pm show at 9pm. Now there is a huge birthday surprise happening so make sure you are there!! The theme is Back to the 90's and it is a benefit for the PWA Christmas fund!

I'm super excited for Portland's coronation. For many reasons! It will be our first Family trip with our daughter, Aria - and her first coronation. I remember my first coronation and I was blown away; all the communities coming together to not only celebrate a reign but raise money for people in need. And the booze of course!!

I hope everyone has a fantastic October! I love you all!

Happy Fall everyone!! It's hard to believe that summer is now over and Fall is officially here! We've had such a great time with all the events the past month and are incredibly excited for the upcoming ones for cancer week!

Congrats to our Empress Kery on a great start to her Cancer Awareness week! I can't wait to see how the rest of this week turns out. Cancer week is such an important week to me because 4 years ago I lost my father to cancer and the work that our organization puts in every year to raising money for cancer awareness is so important to those who are still fighting. So thank you to everyone who is supporting our Empress in her cancer week!

Kayden and I have been working very hard to start piecing together Snowball - and now it's officially only 2 months away! Wow! We are super excited. We have some amazing guest performers from out of town courts that will be joining us and we have a great line-up planned for in-town performers as well. We've put together quite an amazing show for you guys and can't wait to throw this event! We also have one of our last PWA Christmas fund Fundraisers coming up on October 15th to celebrate Kayden's birthday!

Kayden and I will also be traveling up to Portland for their coronation this month. As many of you know, Kayden and I moved back to Utah from Portland, so this will give us a chance to see a lot of our Portland Court and Northwest Court friends and family while representing the RCGSE. For those of you who can make it, I would highly encourage you to do so. Portland's coronation is one of the most fun on the circuit and is always a good time!

Once again, I just want to take the time to thank EVERYONE who has been coming out and supporting our RCGSE family during all of the events thrown. It's great to see our organization and our community to pull together to raise so much money to help those in need and to see the amazing dedication that so many of you have to keep on giving! So, Thank you!

Happy Fall everyone!

September was a great month! I had so much fun at the Salute to Cowboys show, the Back to Basics show, and Closet Ball. Have I mentioned how much I love this community and how we can do great things when we come together?
<3

I'm really looking forward the events this month. Cancer week is going to be great and I personally am looking forward the Strides Against Breast Cancer walk on Saturday, October 15th. I've also made it a personal goal for myself to run my first 5K, coincidentally it's on the same day as the Breast Cancer Walk. Should be a great day! Please makes sure you come out to the events scheduled for Cancer Week. So much work goes into planning activities and I would love to see everyone as much as they can come out and support.

Thank you to everyone for your endless support for Reign 41. I truly love how we can come together in times of need and life each other up. I consider each one of you my friend.

All my love,

Crown Princess 41
