March Newsletter

This month marks the beginning of AIDS awareness month and along with that the Emperor's AIDS week. I hope to see you all out and about. Below is a rundown of the festivities planned for the week.

We will be kicking off AIDS Awareness week with a partnership show between the RCGSE and the Utah Gay Rodeo Association (UGRA) on Friday March 10th. I am happy to be sharing this week with such a great group of people in the UGRA. They are huge supports of the RCGSE and I am honored to partner with them for this kick off show. It will be held at the Murray Eagles. Doors will open at 8 and show will start at 9. The proceeds of the show will go to the RCGSE AIDS fund and the UGRA general fund.

The following night, March 11th we will be having our monarch command show. This show is done in partnership with the RCGSE College of Monarchs. I am excited to see our monarchs come out and support this fund. It will be held at the Sun Trapp, doors at 8 show at 9.

Monday night, March 13th we will be doing bowling at Bonwood Bowl. Tiana LaShae, Jody Stamback, and Johnny Disco are cohosting this event and I cant wait! It is going to be a blast. We will be meeting at Bonwood Bowl at 9 and should be able to start bowling at 9:30.

On Wednesday night, March 15th, Crown Prince Adam Shaylee and Crown Princess Sandi Panties will be helping me host the "Ready..Aim..Darts!!" dart event at the Sun Trapp. Doors will open at 7 and play should commence between 7:30 and 8. Come down, have a drink, buy some raffles and show your skills.

The last event of the week will be March 18th. This year we are ending with a black tie affair where we raise money for those in need. This event will be held at the Rose Wagner Black Box. Doors will open at 5 and show will start at 6. Tickets are $20.00 a piece and need to be ordered prior and can be picked up at will call. Krystyna and I are very excited for this event and hope it continues on for many more years.

For the Red Ball we are soliciting donors and sponsors alike. If you would like to donate or sponsor please contact Erik Shaylee at emperor@rcgse.org or Krystyna at Presidentoftheboard@rcgse.org.

We hope to see you out supporting this week and cause as it is near and dear to many of us. Remember together we can all make a difference and sometimes that is just showing up and showing your support for the organization.

Together we can all make a difference.

The Jade Emperor of peace, hope, and serenity.

The Zen of the Spike.

Emperor 41 – Erik Shaylee.

March Newsletter

We all know that February is a short month, but boy did that fly by. I can't believe March is upon us. I also can't believe that it is cold as hell and still snowing. I guess we get used to the light winters and when we have a harsh one we forget how Utah winters can be. However, I was watching the news and they said we had 3 times the snow back than our average. This will help our reservoirs and keep us from being in a drought, so I am grateful for that.

February was a great month and we had some great events. If you missed out on the King and Queen of Hearts this year, then you truly missed out. Again our pageant chair, Tiana La'Shae, and her committee did a phenomenal job. It was held at Club JAM and the place was packed once again. We had 7 (2 for King 5 for Queen) contestants and they truly brought the house down. There was so much talent in those 7 that is truly showed what Utah has to offer in our community. Congratulations to Lillian Dick for accepting the title of King of Hearts, and congratulations to Anastasia for taking on the title of Queen of Hearts. I know you will both have a wonderful year and do amazing things for the RCGSE.

I also had the pleasure this month to visit Seattle for Coronation. This was my first time in Seattle and it definitely did not disappoint. Even though most places didn't open until 11am we were able to get out and see what Seattle had to offer. Coronation night was great! Again, it is so much fun to meet new people, visit with others and let them know about our upcoming coronation. The new Rainier and Olympia are great friends of the RCGSE and they will do so much good for their community. I can't wait to see what Merry and Nick have in store.

I was also able to go the Utah Aids Foundation's Oscar Gala with our Crown Prince XLI Adam Shaylee. It was a great experience. We saw a lot of our friends that are not part of the court, we were able to mingle with our table but the best part was to see how many people were there fundraising. It made my heart happy to see that we have so much support not only within our community but also from our Allies. Together we are strong and it was humbling to know we have so many people in our corner.

My Emperor, Erik Shaylee, will be starting his AIDS week the beginning of March. He has come up with some great ideas and the week will be amazing. On March 18th, he has organized the Red Ball. This is going to be his main event for the week. There will be raffles, an auction and entertainment. It will be at the Rose Wagner and the cost is $20. All the proceeds earned will go to the AIDS fund to help those that either have HIV/AIDS or have in some way, shape or form been touched by this disease. We hope to see everyone during AIDS week and hope to see everyone at the Ball.

Erik and I are working hard on Coronation XLII. We are excited to celebrate with one and all. Please keep an eye out on the RCGSE website and Facebook for any updates. Please remember that you can already book your hotel room, and tickets will be available shortly.

I love you all so much and am blessed to be on this journey with you all. I hope March brings much joy and happiness. Especially if it heats up and we don't have any more snow storms.

Happy March,

Hope this newsletter finds you all well. February flew by so fast. Happy Birthday to my husband, Princess and best friend. May your 30s bring you all the happiness in the world. I want to give a hand to Tiana for the amazing job she did putting together the King and Queen of hearts pageant. Also congrats to the new title holders.

One thing I said I wanted to do at the beginning of the reign is see more events and coronations more accessible. This past weekend in San Francisco I was able to chat with some monarchs and representatives from other communities about accessibility and how it is a problem throughout the circuit. Now let's get to work. If you have ideas on how we can make this organization more accessible to folks with disabilities please come chat with me. "Accessible design is good design- It benefits people who don't have disabilities as well as people who do. Accessibility is all about removing barriers and providing the same benefits for everyone." –Steve Ballmer

We are getting closer to the end of the Reign and we are going to be very busy. Adams show this weekend and then Aids week the following week. Then Vega and I will be traveling to Boise for their Prince and Princess ball.

As the end of the reign quickly approaches don't forget to take a second to remember why we are all here and why we are doing what we do! If you have not yet got a chance to watch When We Rise on ABC I highly recommend it!

LOVE YOU ALL!!

Happy March, RCGSE!

Now that it's March, hopefully we are about to see warmer weather! That means more outdoor fun!

This past weekend, Kayden and I had the opportunity of travelling to San Francisco with Erik, Krystyna, and Sandi to celebrate the stepping down of the Monarchs in San Francisco. It was a great weekend, filled with family and fun. I can't wait to go back.

Well, we have officially begun the last part of our reign. In less than 90 days, we will crown the newly elected monarchs of the RCGSE. It seems like just yesterday that we were stepping up. Even though the reign may be winding down, we still have so many events coming up that you can come out and support. We have AIDS week coming up this month, as well as Miss Golden Spike Universe, Aria, is hosting "What's In Your Basket" at the end of the month. I'm so proud of the titleholders that we have, putting in such great effort into planning these fundraisers and making a difference in the community. We have an awesome Pageant Titleholder family.

Last night, ABC aired their first installment of the 4 part mini-series "When We Rise" that is set around the Gay Rights movement. I highly encourage anyone who has access to Hulu or OnDemand to watch it, if you haven't already. It is very important to be able to remember and honor where we came from, so that we can continue fighting for where we need to be. Part of the show spotlighted the ICS' founder, Mama Jose. It was so awesome to watch, seeing a depiction of her. Without Mama Jose, the ICS wouldn't be here. Without Pepper, and the other amazing people that were involved, the RCGSE would not be here. It's so important that we honor and respect those that came before us, that paved the way for us.

Thank you to Pepper and the other founders. You have built such a great legacy and we owe it to you.

Always In Service To The Community,

The XL (that's Extra-Large,) Big Booty, Loud Mouth Princess. The Sparkling White Rose of Courage and Determination.

Her Most Royal Highness, Princess Royale XLI.

Welcome to sporting with CP41 Adam Shaylee

I would like to thank everyone who came out to the FHE on 02/26/17 at the Sun Trapp. I was a wonderful potato bar. Thank you to everyone who help bring food and setup the bar. And thank you to the Sun Trapp allowing us to use there space.

I hope to see all of you at the "Little Leagues" Show on 03/04/17. Please bring yours Kids, nephews and nieces as this show is kid friendly. Thank you in advance for coming to the show and showing your support.

I had a wonderful time at the Oscar Gala with the Empress Kery Shaylee. I have never been to the Oscar Gala. It is a great cause and would recommend everyone to go out to the Oscar Gala and support the cause at least once. I ran into some friends and meet some new people while I was there.

If anyone would like to join any LGBTQ sports league or club please reach out to me and I will get you in contact with the correct people to all you to join. All the leagues and clubs are a fun way to stay in shape and meet new people.

Have a safe and happy month everyone,

Sincerely yours,

Crowned Prince Adam Shaylee.

Panty Lines

March Newsletter

About 2 years ago the first time I met Empress 18, Walter he told me he always hugs to the left. It had me curious but I did it. It felt unnatural at first, but then he told me why. He hugs to the left because it lines up your hearts. A hug not only connects two people but feeling the other person's heart been is very bonding. "Research shows a proper deep hug, where the hearts are pressing together can benefit you in countless ways. The nurturing touch of a hug builds trust and a sense of safety." I found this to be completely true – I will always make sure to hug Walter to the left.

This month of love was wonderful. We had drag shows, a pageant and for the first time I got the opportunity to attend San Francisco's coronation. Erik, Krystyna, Vega, Kayden and I had a great time mingling with old friends and new friends. Of course, there were shenanigans to be had – but that's part of the fun. ☺

Adam and I are gearing up for CP Ball to take place on Saturday, April 1, 2017 at the Murray Eagles. We have a great set planned as well as food and a terrific line up. We're excited to begin celebrating the end of our reign year by starting with CP Ball – I hope you can all attend this Black and Gold Ball.

Thank you for your continued love and support for Reign 41. In the words of our sweet Walter, "I love you all, unconditionally!"

All my love,
